Bonnts! Bonnets! MRS. P. C. MYERS, AT NO. 189 MAIN street, would respectfully announce that she will open her: Fall Styles of Bonnets and Hats on Saturday, Oct. 6, 1899. oc5-21*

YESTERDAY, some workmen were en-gaged in repairing the pipe which sup-plies the fire plug on the McLure House corner with water.

MONSTER BEET,—William Daugherty, who lives on the old King property near Mount Wood Cemetery, has presented us with a beet which is 24 inches long, 21 inches round the thickest part, and watchs 104 records reighs 10½ pounds.

THE FAIR NEXT WEEK.—An arrangement has been effected with the Baltinore and Ohio Ballroad, by which ersons desiring to attend the Fair next seek on Wheeling Island, can procure ckets at half price. HENRY MICHAEL, Esc., who we stat-d some time ago was building a fine louse in North Wheeling, has completed and is now occupying it—one part as a dwelling, the other, fronting on Main street, as a lager beer saloon. New Ferry Boat.—The hull of the new ferry boat for Martin's Ferry, at the upper end of the city, is now at the Martinaville landing, and will soon be ready for business. The boat will be a double ender, with side-wheels.

EXCELLENT preparation for winter has been made on the Island by the recent supply of limestone to the street connecting the two bridges. Heretotore that street has been in bad condition during wet weather. It will now be all right.

More Oir.—W. D. Sawtell, Esq., has received a dispatch from Burning Springs informing him that Well No. 2 is pumping pure oil at the rate of 300 bbls per day, also that oil had been struck at Oil Rock and tubing was being put down.

THE GREATEST IMPROVEMENT OF THE AGE.—The late improved Wheeler & Wilson is the only machine that will fell on all kinds of work without the use of the hands. Button holes and embroidery can be done on the late improved machine. Call and see them, No. 99, Main street.

THE Rose Franks was engaged yes-terday in towing up to Sweeney's land-ing the raft, belonging to Hanes & Wilson, which broke loose from its moorligs at the upper end of the city during the late rise in the river, and floated down as far as the Belmont Mills.

THE last few days of good weather have permitted the workmen, engaged in filling up and paying the lower portion of the wharf, to make good progress in their undertaking. About two thirds of the work is now completed and, if the weather continues good and the river don't rise too high, the whole of it will be done soon.

AT LAST the ditch in Main street has been filled up as far down as Union. This has been earnestly desired for a long time. We notice too, that in digging the ditch between Union and Monroe streets, the workmen have taken care to leave open the crossings, which they were exceedingly negligent about doing on the upper portion of Main.

PAVEMENTS.—It is a pretty general remark that the pavements in the city of Wheeling are about as bad as they are anywhere else. We were pleased to see yesterday that Mr. Peter Zinn, confectioner, at the Bridge corner, was doing his best to lessen the force of the remark, for he not only had men employed relaying, his pavement, but he was carrying bricks to them himself.

LECTURE AT WASHINGTON HALL.—In our notice of the lecture to be delivered at Washington Hall by the Rev. W. B. Watkins, for the benefit of the Fourth Street M. E. Sabbath School, we made quite a mistake in stating the time at which it was to be given. Instead of last evening, we should have stated that it will come off on Thursday evening next, Oct. 11th.

Ar the Circuit Court, on Wednesday Artino circuit Court, on Wednesday, thirteen persons were naturalized, whose names are as follows: Paul Brill, of Saxie Wienner; Anton Koner, of Nassay; August Yerk, of Brunswick; Henry Walkinhaner, of Hanover; John McAllister, of Ireland; Charles Mingenknecht, of Hesse; Frederick Moulter, of Byrne; George West, of —; Charles Leffler, of Hanover; Charles Schaenhals, of the Grand Duchy of Hesse; George Palmer, of Baden, and John Shuster, of Byrne.

AT THE POLICE COURT, yesterday morning, the cases of Reese Burdett and William Berry, continued from the day before, were called, but the defendants not making their appearance, they were called at the door of the court room. This also failed to disclose them to view, whereupon some one remarked to the Judge that these gentlemen were inhabitants of the Buckeye State. This accounted for the milk in the coccanut, and His Honor being of the opinion that there was not sufficient evidence to establish a violation of the law, dismissed the cases.

Escape of Convints.—We learn that on Tuesday night last the following convicts escaped from the Harrison county jail at Clarksburg: George K. Cox, Andrew Jackson, and George W. Milton, alias Cassady. Cox, it will be remembered, was the member from Gilmer and Calhoun, in the House of Delegates of 1865, whose right to a seat was contested by Mr. Holt, Sheriff of Gilmer, on the ground that he was guilty of infamous crimes. One of the charges brought forward by Mr. Holt was that Cox had stolen cattle in Lewis county and driven them away and sold them. We learn that this was the offence for which he was lately convicted in the Lewis Court and sentenced to fifteen months in the penitentiary. Of Mr. Andrew Jackson, we know nothing, except that he is not the original "old Hickory," but appears to be more after the style of the modern A. J. He was convicted of manslaughter in the Lawis county Court, and sentenced to five years durance. Mr. Milton (no.relation of the author of "Paradise Lost") was sentenced to eighteen months for horse stealing, and had a fair chance of having the sentence repeated several was sentenced, to eighteen months torse stealing, and had a fair chance horse stealing, and had a sair chance of having the sentence repeated several times for similar oftences, as fast as he served out his terms. Those having valuable horses which they don't want to part with, would do well to look out for this "mute inglorious Milton."

The Intelligence:

At the Court House last night the working men, to the number of 125 or 150, met to take action in relation to the Evening Markets.

Samuel Farris was called to the chair and Thomas O'Brien appointed Secretary.

G. T. Tingle, Esq., offered a resolu-on that it was the opinion of the mestng that the evening market should be bollshed. After considerable discus-don pro, and con, the resolution was but upon its passage and carried.

On motion, a committee of three from the ward was appointed for the pureach ward was appointed for the purpose of getting subscribers to a petition, praying Council to abolish the evening market, and to have the market bell rung, each market worning throughout the year, at, a o'clock. Chourt Court.—The Circuit Court met yesterday at 9 o'clock A. M., Judge Caldwell presiding.

Francis Kreiner, for robbing Beinholdt Meyer of a sum of money, was found gullty and sent to the penitentiary for three years.

Pat Quinlan, for assault upon Allen Williamson, clerk at the McLure House, was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and costs. I. F. Jones, counsel for Quinlan, stated to the Court that an application would be made for a new trial.

Henry Hill and Benjamin Jackson, both colored, charged with stealing a coat containing valuables from August Mathew, barber at the Sprigg.

House, were arraigned and tried; but the evidence not being sufficient for conviction they were discharged. The Court adjourned until to-day at 9 o'clock A. M.

enthusiastic meeting of Union men last evening.
James Launder, Esq., was called to the chair, and Messrs, S. Ellifritz, George Robinson, and Joseph A. Metcalf appointed Vice Presidents; T. M. McNeely, Secretary.
Eloquent addresses were delivered by Hon. C. D. Hubbard, George B. Caldwell, Esq., and E. M. Norton, Esq. We did not have the good fortune to hear the speeches of the first two gentlemen, but got to the meeting in time to hear a portion of the remarks of the latter, which were full of vim, and of such a character as to call forth frequently the tribute of enthusiastic applianse.
